

Dreamy Travel Guide

Rovaniemi Carry-On Packing List Generator

Build your list from the actual forecast, activities and clothing provided by operators.

1. Trip inputs

Travel dates: _____

Daytime forecast: _____ °C Night forecast: _____ °C

Snow / rain / wind risk: _____

Laundry access? Yes / No Checked bag? Yes / No

Main activities: _____

2. Core layering system

- | | |
|--|--|
| ☐ Base-layer tops | ☐ Warm outer jacket |
| ☐ Thermal leggings / base bottoms | ☐ Water-resistant outer layer if needed |
| ☐ Mid-layer fleece or wool sweater | ☐ Warm hat / beanie |
| ☐ Everyday trousers / winter trousers | ☐ Neck gaiter or scarf |
| ☐ Underwear | ☐ Insulated gloves or mittens |
| ☐ Wool or warm socks | ☐ Sleepwear |

3. Check what your Arctic activities provide

Many winter operators provide thermal outerwear, boots and mittens. Confirm before packing duplicates.

- ☐ Thermal overall / jacket + trousers
- ☐ Winter boots
- ☐ Mittens / gloves
- ☐ Wool socks
- ☐ Helmet / specialist equipment

4. Footwear

- ☐ Warm waterproof walking footwear
- ☐ Optional second pair only if needed
- ☐ Indoor / lightweight shoes if accommodation requires

5. Small day-bag essentials

- ☐ Phone + offline maps / tickets
- ☐ Power bank (cold can reduce battery performance)
- ☐ Reusable water bottle
- ☐ Lip balm + moisturizer
- ☐ Sunglasses for bright snow / longer late-winter days
- ☐ Any medication you need

6. Forecast-based add-ons

- ☐ Extra thermal layer for colder forecast
- ☐ Traction aids only if appropriate / permitted
- ☐ Rain shell for transitional conditions
- ☐ Camera battery kept warm
- ☐ Swimsuit for sauna / spa plans

7. Final 48-hour edit

- ☐ Recheck the forecast.
- ☐ Remove duplicate bulky layers.
- ☐ Wear your bulkiest footwear and coat while traveling.
- ☐ Leave room for one unexpected weather change - not every possible Arctic extreme.

My final carry-on gaps
